Auburn Ap. 20. 1864

My dear Garrison

I have, read marked & inwardly digested you to Syracuse. I will follow your advice - to no more of that

I had a pleasant time at Syracuse - a good meeting last evening -
have just arrived here - shall lecture tonight. Intend to stay here till Monday morning - Lecture in Rochester Monday and Tuesday. Return to Ly-cense to give a second lecture on Friday the 29th Then go to Pennsylv-

vania to keep the congressments Mr McLean
may make for me -
Then come to New York

Yours Affectionately

Geo Thompson
